A YouGov poll conducted in UK during February 2010 reveals that the recession is far from over for millions of consumers. Around 11% are living beyond their means; of this 48% use overdrafts to cover the deficit. People who barely break even constitute 26% while a sizable 53% of those surveyed said they reached end of month with less than £100 to spare.

Over 16 million workers do not expect any salary increase in 2010. Despite such economic outlook, everyone deserves to realize their dreams and enjoy the lifestyle they aspire to. All hardworking families need solutions for unexpected or emergency expenses.

For millions of such people, who are faced with unexpected, urgent expenses like vehicle repair or medical expenses, instant payday loans are a fast and convenient solution. For such people, who may have bad credit record or no security to offer, an instant payday loan is the only solution.

To get a loan, the requirements are simple: you need to be a U.K. citizen above 18 years, be employed and have a checking bank account. You can apply online any day of the week at any time. Your loan application will be processed within a few hours and you be contacted by the lender. The terms of the loan will be explained to you; once you accept, money will be deposited in your account with 24 hours.

You can apply for a loan up to £1000 the first time. If you repay the loan in time, and your income is sufficient to repay the loan, you can get up to £1500, and do not even have to fill up the online application form.

You will not be asked about the purpose of loan, nor is any credit check done. If you qualify, you get the loan, it is as simple as that.

Daniel White, the Public Relations Manager of UK Online Payday says “Our online payday loan application system is simple and very fast. It finds you the best lender based on your requirement and you will get a call within couple of hours from the lender. You do not have to fax any documents. We do not bother about previous credit history.
